#Volunteering & Social Media DIY - Recruit, Network, Share

Learn about different platforms and get great ideas about recruitment, networking and sharing safely.

Volunteer Now Enterprises Ltd have teamed up with Louise Brogan, SocialBee NI to organise this workshop on how to use social media, aimed specifically at the voluntary sector.

Are you unsure of your audience, what tone to use in your posts or which social media platforms you should be using? This workshop will cover that as well as how to use social media platforms, creating content and review what is working. Also covered will be best practice and guidelines for engaging with followers, encouraging followers/volunteers to share their experiences, managing photographs, how to respond to negativity or issues raised and how to remove negative posts/comments safely.

This workshop will be running on:

- 22 January 2019
- 6 February 2019
- 19 March 2019

Volunteer Programme Review - Made Easy!

Nothing complicated, no assessment criteria, no formal interviews. Just a good old-fashioned chat over a cuppa!

This review is designed to be a gentle, informative and easy process. Get up to three hours of one of our highly skilled and qualified volunteering experts to chat through a few key questions.

The expert staff at Volunteer Now Enterprises Ltd will facilitate the conversations, teasing out the positive points and establishing the barriers or blockages to success. A short report then outlines our findings and suggestions for the way forward. Easy! Now go get that kettle on!
