Action Cancer - E Commerce Volunteer (Carrickfergus)

We have an exciting new volunteering opportunity for someone who has an interest and a flare for selling online through the eBay market place. The impact of the pandemic has had a massive impact on the income that has been generated for Action Cancer through our shops with long periods of enforced closure. We are looking for someone who is driven, has an eye for detail and excited to take up this new role based out of our Carrickfergus shop for a few hours a week. The role will comprise of photographing, uploading and posting any items that sell through eBay for the charity. You will be part of a great team who are all driven to support the charity. Our shop has a wonderful shop manager who will be on hand for training and support. If you have the skills we would love to hear from you so if you know your eBay from you depop and your etsy get in touch!

All money that is raised through our shops goes directly to support Action Cancer's cancer prevention, detection and support services in Northern Ireland that are needed more than ever. Click the link to apply <http://bit.ly/3pbwOWq>

Oxfam Charity Shop Volunteers (Ballymena)

At Oxfam Ballymena our people come from all kinds of backgrounds, joined by a common goal to make a difference. We are always looking for hard working and passionate individuals to come along and volunteer with us, even an hour of your time can make a valuable contribution to a great cause. If you think you might want to be part of it all click here for more information <https://bit.ly/3rWPvhZ>

Butterfly Conservation Committee NI - Secretary

We are a group of volunteers working to deliver various nature conservation activities. We have a Committee that runs the activities and would like to attract someone to take on the position of Secretary. This role would suit someone who has good attention to detail and an interest in wildlife. To apply click this link <http://bit.ly/3bNrbsQ>

National Autistic Society - Autism Research Team Volunteer

Research is vital to understanding the challenges autistic people and their families face, and what makes a difference. The Research Team has a varied range of duties and projects to manage. Support from a team volunteer will help us make the best possible contribution to the NAS's goal of a society that works for autistic people. This role is homebased, tasks include some admin and some research so if you would like to learn new skills why not click the link for information and to apply <http://bit.ly/3ba3xYg>

Save the Children - Team Retail Volunteer (Bushmills)

Our Bushmills Save the Children Shop has been a much loved part of the local community for years and continues to be hugely popular with customers and supporters, thanks to the kindness and creativity of the volunteer team! In addition to preloved items it sells a variety of lovely hand knitted and crafted goods – perfect for all occasions! If you would like to volunteer with us all you need is enthusiasm and a desire to make a difference. Volunteer tasks can include anything from sorting donations, steaming clothes, pricing products, managing the till, and helping with the window displays. ## British Red Cross - Emergency Response Surge Rota Volunteer (Ballymoney)

Could you help us support people in an emergency? This is an Ad Hoc Role - volunteers will be contacted when needed in an emergency such as adverse weather or for a preplanned event such as Anti Human Trafficking. The service has a particular need of applicants with day-time availability. Volunteers for this role must be over 18, hold a full driving licence, have access to own vehicle and must live within a 15 mile radius of Ballymoney. This role requires an Access NI check. If you feel this could be the role for you click on the link <https://bit.ly/3riDUJB>

Inspire Wellbeing - Volunteer Advocate

Inspire Advocacy provide support for people who access mental health services in the community and in hospital settings. We take time to listen to the views and concerns of the people we support and help them to explore their options and rights. Advocates play an important role in ensuring people have access to information and support to enable them to have a voice. We support people to communicate their wishes to the relevant people in a range of ways, including support them to attend meetings, or if appropriate, attending on their behalf.
