Hourglass - Helpline Volunteer (Home-based)

Hourglass Helpline volunteers are often the first port of call for vulnerable older people (or perhaps worried family members or carers). They provide a listening ear, emotional support and explore various sources of help. Full training and support provided. Find out more at bit.ly/3IHtLpW

MindWise - Befriending Volunteers

Could you help to support MindWise's clients to access activities in their local community and can spare an hour or two a week? Befriending volunteers are needed in:

Shopmobility

Shopmobility is highly regarded as the final and vital link in the transport chain for those with physical and mobility issues and disabilities. With 13 schemes around the province, there are opportunities to volunteer with a scheme that is close to you and serves your local community. Whether you want to work in one of the offices and utilise your skills there, or you enjoy meeting people on a daily basis and want to help them regain their mobility by hiring out equipment, Shopmobility would love to hear from you. RSPB NI - Local Group Website Editor (Fermanagh)

The Fermanagh RSPB Local Group (local community group) are looking for a Website Editor to manage the group's official RSPB webpage. The group will be getting a new RSPB website in early 2022, and we are looking for someone to set up the page and manage it on an ongoing basis to keep it up to date with current news, events and group details. Find out more at bit.ly/3l817ht

AbilityNet - Technology Volunteer

AbilityNet volunteers visit older and/or disabled people at home to offer one-to-one support with their technology, whether that's a computer, laptop, smartphone or tablet. You don't need to be a tech guru to help out. If you use a computer at home or work, and perhaps support family and friends with their tech issues, you are likely to have the skills we need.
