Wellness Sessions Volunteers – Northern Ireland Chest, Heart & Stroke

NICHS care services offer those affected by chest heart & stroke conditions to take part in a programme of activities and socialise with those who have been through a similar experience. They need volunteers to help with their Wellness Session in Dungannon. More info at <https://tinyurl.com/yzfpnzj5>

Event Assistant Volunteer – The Speedwell Trust

Events Assistant needed to offer support during the many events for children and young people, run at the Speedwell Trust throughout the year. Generally, the events will be held at their premises at Parkanaur Forest. Find out more at <https://tinyurl.com/m8ndza9f>

Fundraising Volunteers – Guide Dogs NI

Join your local Guide Dogs fundraising team! Volunteering with Guide Dogs means you'll join a friendly team and meet new people (as well as some of their fabulous four legged friends). This is a flexible volunteer role that you can fit into your daily activities. Find out more at <https://tinyurl.com/rcjumeaf>

Independent Custody Visitors – NI Policing Board

Volunteers work in pairs to check on detainees held in custody, assessing their access to rights, their treatment, health and wellbeing and the conditions of detention. For more info: <https://tinyurl.com/5n925wj7>

Applications are also open for volunteers to join Policing and Community Safety Partnerships (PCSPs) throughout NI. (PCSP applications close on 13 Oct 2023) <https://tinyurl.com/3wmkmbv>

NCT Community Builder – National Childbirth Trust NI (Home-based)

NCT Community Builders are at the heart of our local volunteer teams. You will engage with parents in the local community to understand where support is needed and will help build a team of community volunteers who offer welcoming, and inclusive, events and activities that improve the wellbeing of parents.
