Telephone Wellbeing Volunteer – Deafblind - Home Based

Deafblind UK members have combined sight and hearing loss and many live. Keeping in regular contact with our members to check on their wellbeing is one of our key services. We are looking for confident, chatty and friendly individuals who can hold short conversations with our members over the phone while make that 'check in' call. For more info: bit.ly/3VVI8aC

Volunteer Coordinator - RSPB NI - County Down

This is an exciting new opportunity to work with our Conservation officers to further develop a team of existing volunteers to help protect Yellowhammers, a priority species in Northern Ireland. This role will require approximately 6-12 hours of work per week. Training will be provided and we'll support you every step of the way. For more info: bit.ly/3YM5kbX

Retail Team Member - Action Cancer - Bangor

We are looking for volunteers for our furniture shop on Market Street, Bangor. This is a fantastic opportunity to support Action Cancer in your local community and raise funds for our services. An understanding of basic internet technology is desirable. We will provide full training on our instore systems. For more info: bit.ly/3ZMlnYx

Farm Worker Volunteer - National Museums NI - Cultra, Holywood

Our historic working farm is a unique opportunity to act out the life that our ancestors lived and worked, preserve historical methods of farming for future generations and learn about our native and traditional breeds of animals and livestock. We have a unique opportunity for a volunteer to work alongside us to help with the day to day running of this special place. From new-born lambs, planting crops, harvesting and haymaking – there are plenty of exciting reasons to get involved. For more info: bit.ly/3sAqxHU
