OPPORTUNITY SPOTLIGHTS:

Belfast

Autumn 2026

Here are a few volunteering opportunities currently available throughout the Belfast area.
For a full selection of opportunities, have a look at the Opportunity Search on volunteernow.co.uk, or view this publication online using the QR code below.
If you need any assistance finding or registering for an opportunity, let us know ... we are here to help!

Every November, hundreds of NI Hospice supporters don their Christmas jumpers to help raise funds for NI Hospice's specialist palliative care. Join their collection in Tesco stores throughout Belfast on 20-22 Nov: https://tinyurl.com/pw4js5hx

The Conservation Volunteers are on the hunt for a volunteer who can help with bits and bobs around their office and workshop in Belfast: organising the workshop, charging tools, mending equipment etc. https://tinyurl.com/yv9kc6yn

Most of Cancer Focus work is funded through donations and fundraising so they couldn't do it without you! Be part of a growing volunteer team who are making a difference in raising awareness and vital money to support the work Cancer Focus NI does for local people with cancer and their families. https://tinyurl.com/3ykd3j2u

Volunteer Now's Befriending Scheme supports people aged 60+ living in Belfast who are socially isolated and/or lonely, living in their own homes and cannot get out and about, attend activities or see friends and family like they used to. Could you visit an older person at home to provide friendship and support? https://tinyurl.com/2ncba6c6

The Linen Hall is the oldest library in Belfast but they are much more than that! Volunteering roles include Tour Guide, Meet & Greet members and visitors both local and from round the world, The Linen Hall Charity Bookshop, and helping at Events. https://tinyurl.com/4avmk4ea
